A detailed cross-sectional view of a device, likely a pump or valve assembly. The central component is a circular element labeled 'P-2'. It is surrounded by a complex arrangement of parts, including a central shaft or piston (85) and various housing or support structures (80, 80a, 81, 82, 83, 84, 86, 87, 88, 89, 90, 91). The diagram shows the internal components and their relative positions within the device.
